

United States Government Trade Capacity Building Assistance, 2001-2005

Uganda

Since 2001, the United States Government has provided more than $34 million in Trade Capacity Building (TCB) assistance to Uganda, funding a broad range of activities. Over the past five years, resources have been allocated in the following categories:

In addition to this bilateral assistance, Uganda also benefits from many of the regional programs focused on Sub-Saharan Africa. Attached are Country Activity Reports detailing each activity undertaken by the United States Government from 2002 to 2005 for:

- Uganda
- Non-targeted Regional Programs in Sub-Saharan Africa
- Non-targeted Programs for the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA)

EAC: Donation of Surplus Grain Testing and Inspection Equipment	The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) office for International Cooperation Development (ICD), part of the Foreign Agricultural Service (FAS) collaborates with another U.S. agency to donate surplus grain testing and inspection equipment to the Bureau of Standards in three East African countries: Kenya, Uganda and Tanzania. One week of hands-on training and TA was provided in each country to ensure the equipment was properly calibrated and bureau staff are properly trained in operating procedures. The donation of this surplus equipment and subsequent training demonstrates USDA support of the region's efforts towards harmonization of agricultural standards. By supporting the development and harmonization of grain standards and reliable and fast inspection services in these countries, the FAS of the USDA is laying the groundwork for future trade partnerships between U.S. agribusinesses and East Africa. Funded and implemented by Department of Agriculture/FAS.	Agreement on SPS	10,212
Entebbe Airport Development Additional	U.S. Trade Development Agency (USTDA) awarded grant to the Civil Aviation Authority of Uganda (CAAU) to partially fund a feasibility study on the expansion of Entebbe International Airport, including the domestic, international, and cargo terminals. Enhanced cargo facilities will directly support Uganda's growing international trade and its ability to utilize trade benefits under the African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA). The expanded airport will also provide capacity to support growth of Uganda's tourism economy and growing business travel in the region. The LPA Group, Inc., of Columbia, South Carolina, will carry out the study. Both the CAAU and the LPA Group contributed funding toward the completion of the study. (Activity# 200110034D) Funded and implemented by Trade and Development Agency.	Physical Infrastructure Development	542,249
Strengthening the Competitiveness of Private Enterprise	The Strengthening the Competitiveness of Private Enterprises (SCOPE) activity is aimed at supporting Uganda's efforts to increase its competitive positioning in the global marketplace in targeted commodity sectors. USAID will provide technical assistance and training to help Uganda develop a strong trade policy and investment strategy and to strengthen private sector competitiveness in order to increase the volume and value of Ugandan exports. Activities will increase competitiveness, diversify exports, and expand Uganda's market share in key export sectors. Activities will also introduce appropriate technologies, including information and communication technology, and increase access to financial services for both agricultural and non-agricultural enterprises. These efforts will help create a more business-friendly environment, which will attract foreign direct investment and encourage local private investment, as has been done with cut flowers, fisheries, and vanilla. African Growth & Opportunity Act (AGOA): Customs Assessment of Uganda	In May 2003, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officials conducted a customs operations and training needs assessment in Uganda. The primary objective was to assess Uganda's compliance with the Africa Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA) and identify areas that could benefit from additional training. This assessment enabled Uganda to identify training in areas that support and promote trade in general such as automation, risk management, valuation, and intellectual property rights enforcement. CBP will use the results of this assessment to develop future training in Uganda and Sub-Saharan Africa. Funded and implemented by Department of Homeland Security/Customs. Bank of Uganda Export Credit Guarantee Facility (BOU/ECGF)	The Bank of Uganda Export Credit Guarantee Facility (BOU/ECGF) provides Ugandan exporters of non-traditional goods and services with credit for their working capital requirements from six participating banks. An exporter's working capital requirement is the cost associated with a sale which includes: labor and supervision; raw materials; semi-finished goods; final product inspection fees; export packing; storage; insurance; and shipment and customs duties. Eligible costs must affect at least 35% Ugandan content of the export product. Commodities include maize, fish, flowers, horticultural products, apparel, hides, handicrafts, and minerals. Aside from the successful usage of this credit program by exporters and the banks, the most important recent success is that the Bank of Uganda this year financed the US $2 million dollars for the facility themselves with zero donor contributions. National Seed Association Development in Africa	Together with the African Seed Trade Association, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) implemented organizational meetings and launching workshops to establish and strengthen national seed trade associations in target countries. The new associations will become full members of the African Seed Trade Association and thereby strengthen AFSTA's capacity to promote privatization of the seed sector, harmonization of seed regulations, and the expansion of regional markets for international seed trade in their respective countries. In September 2004, USDA intends to implement a regional workshop for national seed trade association members of AFSTA to advance organizational strategy and promote best practices for financial management of their associations. Funded and implemented by Department of Agriculture/FAS.	Trade-Related Agriculture	72,590
Regional Agriculture Expansion Support (RATES) project	The Regional Agriculture Trade Expansion Support (RATES) program is designed to increase value/volume of agricultural trade within the East and Southern Africa region and between the region and the rest of the world. RATES focuses on developing commodity-specific regional trade initiatives through innovative private sector/public sector alliances and partnerships and works primarily through regional trade flow leaders such as regional trade associations, national-level trade organizations, private companies, and individual entrepreneurs. RATES is currently supporting activities in specialty coffee, maize and pulses, cotton/textiles, livestock, and dairy. Through policy advocacy, lobbying, public relations and marketing, RATES is developing a regional dialogue regarding trade issues in East and Southern Africa. For more information, visit www.ratescenter.org . Funded and implemented by USAID/REDSO.	Export Promotion	833,400

African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA): Trade-Related Instit. Building	The Commercial Law Development Program (CLDP) , along with Constance Hamilton, Senior Director for African Affairs at the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR), participated in the second U.S.-Sub-Saharan Africa Trade and Economic Cooperation Forum in Mauritius in January 2003, and conducted consultations with African government officials and businesspeople who attended the USTR/CLDP-sponsored AGOA workshops held in 2002. The goal was to follow-up with representatives from countries that participated in these workshops to determine some of the outcomes of the sessions and how the delivery of such technical assistance could be improved. African government officials consistently mentioned that the workshops taught them the importance of marketing and outreach to the private sector, both domestically and abroad. Funded by USAID and implemented by Department of Commerce/CLDP.	Export Promotion	500,000
Chemical Information Exchange Network	This project enhances good governance and inter-agency cooperation on the sound management of chemicals and pesticides within the Southern African Development Community (SADC) region. The project also enhances information technology access and provides needed training to key stakeholders involved with chemicals. For example, the project assisted several countries in better regionally coordinating pesticide regulations. In Zambia, a fee-based Internet Resource Center was developed with support from industry, to facilitate access to key chemical information. This information is being used to improve environmental management in the private and public sectors. Funded and implemented by Environmental Protection Agency.	E-Commerce & IT	25,000
